Some of the 20-odd islets are little more than rocky outcrops but most are covered in trees and circled by sandy beaches, making a gorgeous backdrop for scenic sailing on the cobalt waters. A tender will take you to the marina where you will board the sailboat. Your local captain will plan on anchoring in two different tuckedaway bays where you can go for a refreshing swim and do some snorkeling. The timing of these stops will depend on wind and sea conditions. Then stretch out onboard to enjoy the views as you sail back to Hvar to rejoin the yacht.
